Millinery Class Teaches How To Keep In Style

"When Winter winds blow and the skies are overcast, there is no morale-lifter so potent for Millady as a new hat," says Lillian Moore, Millinery instructor for the Albany Adult Education Center. Around the clock, for day-time to date time, Fashion provides becoming hats, all of which can be made in the three Millinery classes held at the Solano Adult Unit, corner of Solano and Cornell Avenues: Thursday mornings, 8:30 to 12; Thursday afternoons, 1 to 4; and Monday evenings, 7 to 10. Enrollment is open to those residing in or out of Albany, as are all Adult Center classes.

Students in the Millinery classes are instructed in the latest styles and materials, from the crowned felts to a variety of straws, veils, flowered bonnets and the current popular innovation, the halo breton. Every facet of hat making is covered, including blocking, shaping, trimming and draping. As in past years, pheasant skins will be sold in the classroom, and Mrs. Moore will show those interested both how to make designs with these beautiful feathers and how to dye these to gain a wider selection of colors.

Senior Citizen Activities, 850 Masonic

The usual monthly business meeting of the Senior Citizens of Albany at 850 Masonic Avenue, was held January 2 at 1:30 p.m.

The veteran treasurer, Virginia Gill, read the treasurer's report for the month of January and it showed that the financial affairs of the club are in good hands.

Reports were also heard from other committees. The chairman of the entertainment committee, Carolyn Matthew, announced that the date for the trip to Richmond Rod and Gun Club has been definitely decided for February 23 from 7 p.m. to 11 p.m. The cost will be 75 cents per person. The bus pickup will be at 850 Masonic Avenue at 7 p.m. but it is advisable to be there a few minutes earlier if possible. Call Henry Ingraham at LA 6-3078 for reservations as the "sign up" is now on for this trip.

The prospects for a good lunch should tempt any gourmet as Sam Barbutto has promised to provide 10 pounds of weiners. Charles Harrington has agreed to provide the buns to go with the weiners. Gertrude Garden has promised a huge salad and Lucille Thauberger has promised a large sheet cake. There are many other contributions promised from many of the other members. Come and enjoy yourself at this lovely clubhouse. Carolyn has promised that there will be other entertainment provided after lunch.

Mr. Nelson of the Recreation

Department was present and announced that the Albany Bowl would sponsor a free class for Seniors who would like to take up bowling. Any members interested in this sport are asked to contact "Tony" Gallimore, the recreation co-ordinator for the club at 850 Masonic Avenue.

A pleasant surprise was enjoyed by the Seniors at lunch time when Nellie Breault announced that the luncheon was through the courtesy of one of the members, Fred Oetking, who is now confined, through illness, to Bethany Manor Rest Home, 612 St. Clair Avenue, Sheboygan, Wisconsin. Because of his deep affection and nostalgic memories of the club, he sent Nellie a package of Wisconsin sausage and money to buy cheese and rye bread for the club's lunch that day. Needless to say, the club was very touched by this and his words that "The Senior Club at 850 Masonic was the best club he had ever belonged to and he had been a member of many clubs". The club voted to send Fred a Round-Robin card of thanks.

After lunch was over, the usual card games were enjoyed.

At the meeting Tuesday night, January 12, Charles Harrington, a new member, brought a huge sheet cake for lunch so with the other two cakes which had been donated, a surplus of cake developed and the Seniors solved the problem by auctioning off two of the smaller cakes. Charles Harrington and Louise DeMonte were the lucky winners. Mr. Harrington became a believer in the old saying, "Cast your (cake or bread) upon the waters".

Sports and Boat Show in S.F. to Run Ten Days

Christine von Saltza, 16-year-old American swimming champion from Santa Clara, California, has been appointed by Governor Edmund G. Brown as his "personal representative" to attend opening ceremonies for the 16th annual San Francisco National Sports and Boat Show at the Cow Palace on March 4.

Holder of the world's record for the 200-meter backstroke, Chris recently broke two of her own American indoors records in freestyle swimming. She now holds 22 American swimming records in freestyle, backstroke and medley events.

An attendance of 300,000 is anticipated for the 10-day show, which runs through March 13. Hundreds of exhibits of boats and gear for boat owners, fishermen, campers and vacationists will be displayed.

Free parking will be available on the Cow Palace grounds, and additional new boxoffices with entrance on Geneva Avenue will be opened for the convenience of the public.

IT'S FEBRUARY - 1963
...and this couple is moving into a new home, just three years after they began saving for the down-payment at Bank of America.
Saving at B of A brought them more than money, too! It brought the convenience of 59 banking services, covering every need from trust funds to financing, checking accounts to money orders. And it brought the satisfaction of knowing their funds were absolutely safe, instantly available.
You, too, could have been enjoying these advantages for the last three years—if you'd opened a B of A savings account back in February, 1960. Still, it's never too late...
